

Pact Signed To Guarantee Flow Of Steel

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A four-month labor peace pact guaranteed today a continued flow of steel for the nation's booming economy.

"It's all signed, sealed and delivered," said David J. McDonald, United Steelworkers president.

He and R. Conrad Cooper, chief negotiator for the basic steel industry, signed the temporary truce exchanging postponement of Saturday's scheduled strike for an 11.5-cent hourly pay hike.

But for a while Wednesday it was touch and go.

Opposition Heard

The expected routine approval by the steelworkers' Wage Policy Committee turned into a three-hour debate when opponents branded the pact a "tin cup agreement" and implied that top union negotiators were "beggars."

"We all thought it was lost," said one top union source after the hectic session of the 163-man committee, which finally overrode the opposition and approved the agreement.

Less than an hour after the committee's shouted approval, Cooper hustled to McDonald's hotel headquarters. Emerging a few minutes later, Cooper shook hands with McDonald and said, "It's signed."

Both emphasized a complete contract remains to be negotiated. Either side can serve 30-day notice Aug. 1 to end the agreement, bringing on another steel strike threat Sept. 1.

With at least temporary labor peace assured, attention turned to Friday's scheduled announce-

Governor Will Unveil New Tax Plans May 13

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney will unveil "alternatives to avoid financial crisis" in Michigan at a conference on state finances May 13.

Romney, who promised last week to propose alternate tax revision plans, is again taking his fiscal message to the people—but this time it is a plea for "fiscal integrity," rather than specifically for fiscal reform.

And that, Romney hinted last week, could involve a piecemeal approach to increased or new taxes.

Over 1,600 Invited

His office announced Wednesday that he has scheduled a Governor's Conference on State Finances for May 13, to which he has invited some 1,600. The list includes legislators, news

Ionia Escapers Back In Custody After Hitchhike

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Two Ionia Reformatory escapees who hitchhiked their way here were being held for return today after they were turned in by two Saranac men who had given them the ride.

Held after their arrest in a town bar were Charles L. Moore, 20, who had been serving a term of 5 to 15 years from Berrien County for armed robbery, and Terry E. Moore, 22, who was serving a sentence for auto theft from Kent County.

They reportedly walked away from a reformatory work detail late Wednesday.

media executives, agency heads, mayors and representatives of labor, church, civic, educational and veterans organizations.

The purpose of the conference, his letter of invitation said, is to:

1. "Outline needed projected state expenditures for the next three budget years.

2. "Bring about a better public understanding of the serious nature of this state's future financial problems."

In the letters of invitation, mailed Wednesday, Romney said:

"It is vital and urgent that we begin now to do the necessary fiscal planning and take the necessary responsible actions if we are to avoid a financial crisis and again lose our state's reputation."

Ideas From Audience

Romney, who held a series of meetings across the state when he was trying to gain popular support for fiscal reform in 1963, "does not plan any follow-up to this meeting," said administrative assistant Walter DeVries.

The basic purpose of the 3½-hour meeting, DeVries said, "will be to inform and educate, but we also hope for reaction, discussion and ideas from the audience."

"Maintaining the state's integrity and good name becomes even more important than fiscal reform," Romney told legislators last week, after predicting a minimum $925 million general fund budget for 1967-68 and a deficit of $140 million to $150 million, based on current spending and revenue levels.

U.S. Marines On Guard In Santo Domingo Revolt

Rebels Appear To Hold Control In Capital City

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Armed civilians threw up street barricades in Santo Domingo during the night in anticipation of fresh assaults from military forces opposing the return to power of deposed President Juan Bosch.

Pro-Bosch army rebels and the civilians appeared to be in control of the Dominican Republic's capital following the retreat of anti-Bosch tank forces which had pushed 300 yards into the city on Tuesday.

Brig. Gen. Elias Wessin y Wessin and his anti-Bosch forces were still in control of the powerful San Isidro Air Base and military center 20 miles outside the city. Wessin set up a three-man military junta to govern the country and claimed his forces were victorious.

U.S. Marines who came ashore Wednesday night to evacuate Americans from the battle zone were reported massed at a polo ground outside Santo Domingo. The field has become an assembly point for the evacuees.

There was no immediate reaction from either side to the Marine landing on Dominican soil.

U.S. officials in Washington stressed that the Marines landed solely to protect Americans in the country and would stay only as long as necessary for this mission.

Australia Sends Combat Troops To S. Viet Nam

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — Prime Minister Sir Robert Menzies announced in the House of Representatives today Australia will provide an infantry battalion for service in South Viet Nam.

Sir Robert said the decision had been made on request of the South Vietnamese government for further military assistance.

Defense Minister Shane Paltridge declined to say when the battalion would leave and where it would be deployed in South Viet Nam.

Government sources had reported earlier that Australia would provide up to 800 army troops for combat duty with U.S. and South Vietnamese forces.

An Australian contingent of 800 men would be the second largest unit from any of America's allies in South Viet Nam. South Korea has 2,000 troops there, but they are primarily a work force to build and repair roads, bridges and railways.

Government sources said the decision to send Australian combat forces is not a result of the visit to Canberra last week by U.S. presidential envoy Henry Cabot Lodge. The Australian Cabinet had considered the idea of a more positive involvement in Viet Nam for some time before Lodge's visit, the sources said.

Lodge is touring friendly Far Eastern and Pacific nations to drum up support for U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

Australia already has in South Viet Nam about 100 jungle combat advisers and a Royal Australian Air Force transport unit. The jungle advisers, like their U.S. counterparts, are not classified as combat troops. But they have been in combat areas for months and have suffered casualties in action, including one killed.

The U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam, Maxwell D. Taylor, told Italian newsmen earlier this month that "aside from the United States, the nationals of supporting nations in South Viet Nam number over 3,000." He said 37 nations have provided support or are about to give support to South Viet Nam.

The Sydney Sun said New Zealand is reported also to have agreed to provide further military aid to South Viet Nam. The newspaper said "observers believe that the underlying aim of the Australian and New Zealand decisions will be to influence Japan and the Philippines to give greater direct aid to the American cause in the Viet Nam struggle."

Pakistani Take Barren Oasis

BIAR-BET, Kutch (AP) — Pakistani forces claim they scored an easy victory over Indian troops in a four-day battle that ended with Pakistani occupation of this oasis in the baked, barren Rann of Kutch.

It is one of the most unlikely and desolate battlegrounds on earth. Soon the heat-scoured wastes will become marshy tidal, covered by water from the Arabian Sea whipped up by monsoon rains.

The temperature reaches 120 degrees during the day. The desert shimmers in the blinding heat.

Pakistani field commanders said almost all fighting takes place at night, when the heat subsides. The darkness also allows more freedom of movement across the empty flats where during the day one can see for miles.

Troops are dug in around the oasis which is several miles long. Some Pakistani tanks are parked nearby. No villages or civilians can be seen.

The Pakistani officers talked light-heartedly about their combat experience.

"We would have pushed them clear to Bombay," a captain said with a laugh. He said his troops suffered no fatalities in taking Biar-Bet and that the first evacuee was a wounded Indian.

Drive Against Illiteracy Pays Off In Mexico

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico's nationwide "revolution through education" is being pushed hard by the administration, which hopes to eliminate illiteracy by 1970. Even if the goal is not reached, the drive is paying off.

Mexico spends four times as much on education as it does on defense and efforts to educate the masses are massive, although the stark is a major problem.

Illiteracy, running almost 80 per cent of the population at one time, is down to around 32 per cent. But Mexico's population has jumped from 15 million to around 40 million in half a century, and is growing at the rate of a million a year. So the percentage looks good, but the actual numbers don't.

New Fields Added

Consequently, Prof. Ramon Bonfil, newly appointed director of the government's anti-illiteracy campaign, is pushing education in all fields — new schools, more teachers, radio and television programs, a national drive for more students, and even new teaching concepts.

Newspapers, television, radio, private industrial and fraternal groups, all are helping. School children ring doorbells looking for illiterates to enroll in a new 10-month course.

When the 1910 revolution ended, Mexican peasants wanted schools for their children almost as badly as they wanted land for themselves. President Alvaro Obregón launched Mexico's first major program for education in the early 1920s. He named Jose Vasconcelos education minister.

Vasconcelos organized missionary teachers to visit rural areas by rail, car, horseback, canoe and on foot, surveying educational and health needs and recruiting the help of rural teachers. By the end of Obregon's term in 1924 there were more than 1,000 federal rural schools operating, with about 65,000 students, despite many handicaps.

Population Spurts

The latest figures show there are 37,576 primary city schools with 6,605,751 students, and 28,931 primary rural schools with 2,694,191 students. In addition, there are secondary schools, many universities, including the huge National University, with more than 75,000 enrolled, and other centers.

But Mexico's battle has been complicated by the tremendous increase in population, about 3.1 per cent a year. In 1930 Mexico had 16.6 million people, today an estimated 40 million.

Although the government has set up a five-year program hoping to educate all by 1970, officials acknowledge it may take a decade to provide adequate education for this ever-swelling tide of school-age children.

Forces Landed To Help Flight Of Americans

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Marines mounted guard in the Dominican Republic today to protect fleeing Americans as rival Dominicans battled for control of the Caribbean country.

In Washington, the Council of the Organization of American States was summoned to emergency session, at U.S. request to hear a U.S. report on its action and to consider possible peacemaking efforts.

President Johnson ordered the Marines ashore at Santo Domingo late Wednesday after hearing the capital had plunged into chaos, leaving 2,000 Americans in the country "in danger."

No Shooting Yet

In a brief, hurriedly arranged radio-television appearance shortly before 9 p.m. Johnson announced 400 Marines had landed from the U.S. naval task force off Santo Domingo in order to protect the American citizens there and "to escort them safely back to this country."

By late in the evening 178 Americans had been flown out by helicopter and another 21 taken aboard ship at Haina, the port about eight miles from the capital.

More Marines were due ashore today. They were to join their fellow Leathernecks at the Polo Grounds by the Embajador Hotel on the city's outskirts, as evacuation center for the refugee Americans. One patrol went downtown to guard the American Embassy. The Marines had become involved in no shooting as of early today. No Americans have been injured.

For Protection Only

U.S. officials said the United States was taking no sides in the political turmoil engulfing the republic. They said the Marines will serve no cause except to protect Americans and will stay there until their mission is completed.

Johnson's order marked the first such use of Marines in Latin America in years. U.S. officials expected criticism from Latin Americans mindful of American "gunboat diplomacy" of a bygone era. But under international law, they said, a nation can send its forces to another land to protect its nationals when the local government breaks down.

Reports reaching the President told of gun battles in Santo Domingo, looting, Communist agitation, the collapse of local authority and word from the Dominicans that they could not guarantee the safety of the Americans there.

In Economic Trouble

U.S. officials gave this account of the crisis action:

In attempts to return to democracy after 34 years of Trujillo dictatorship, Santo Domingo has had 8 governments in the last 4 years. The country also has been in deep economic trouble. The American ambassador, W. Tapley Bennett, was recalled to Washington last Friday to see what could be done about it.

On Saturday, rebels favoring the return of former President Juan Bosch sought to oust the Donald Reid Cabral government, which had come under widespread criticism for its belt-tightening austerity program to improve the economy.

The insurgents split into groups favoring others as well as Bosch.

Fighting flared sporadically and out of control. Cease-fire agreements were made and broken. A U.S. naval task force headed by the carrier Boxer, with some 1,500 Marines aboard, moved near but out of sight of Santo Domingo Sunday, strictly as a precautionary measure.

Cease-Fire Fails

Ambassador Bennett hurried back and tried his hand, in vain, at arranging a cease-fire.

On Tuesday, 1,172 Americans were evacuated by helicopter and landing craft at Haina, though not without a scare. A band of 200-300 machinegun-armed civilians accosted the Americans while they were waiting at the Embajador Hotel. They finally left without hurting the refugees.

Still there are about 1,000 Americans in the city and 1,000 in the countryside. Most of those

Dikes Burst Along Wild Mississippi

By The Associated Press

The churning Mississippi River erupted through the Quincy area in west-central Illinois today, while 140 miles upriver weakened dikes were battered in the Quad Cities of Iowa and Illinois.

The record flood burst dikes and spread debris-littered water over thousands of acres from Dubuque, Iowa, to Hannibal, Mo.

Floodwaters rolled over more than 5,600 acres of farm land south of Quincy, but most of the city of 45,000 residents is situated on bluffs and is safe.

More than 15 square blocks of the business district were inundated in Hannibal, a city of 20,000.

Traffic Stopped

The river burst a levee in the South Quincy drainage district, and engulfed more than 5,600 acres. Some 150 persons were evacuated.

Illinois 57 south of Quincy was closed and most rail traffic was stopped. Highway 36 and the Mark Twain Bridge were in danger of being closed.

Two National Guardsmen on the South Quincy levee when it broke were rescued by boats.

About 24 miles south of Quincy, the 550 residents of Hull, Ill., were ready to leave. Officials said the levees protecting the town would not hold.

In Hannibal, 23 families were evacuated from low areas as the river reached its highest level in history. Hannibal has no levee.

Civil Defense workers used a boat to patrol against looting in the flooded Hannibal business district. The U.S. Weather Bureau predicted a 25½-foot crest Sunday.

Sandbaggers In Danger

Upriver, the crested Mississippi surged against soggy dikes in the Quad Cities of Moline, Rock Island and East Moline, Ill., and Davenport, Iowa. The area has a population of more than 270,000.

The Mississippi crested at 22.4 feet in Rock Island Wednesday, more than 7 feet above flood stage.

"This is the time you can get killed during a flood," one U.S. Corps of Engineers official said. "They're all out there piling sandbags while the river's rising, but the moment it starts to drop a tenth of a foot or two, they want to go home."

Science Satellite Put In Orbit To Measure Earth

WALLOPS ISLAND, Va. (AP) — A 72-foot-tall rocket blasted off from this space research center today in an attempt to place a 132-pound Explorer scientific satellite in orbit.

The spacecraft is called the Beacon Explorer-C.

Space agency officials said everything went as scheduled through burnout on all four stages of the launching vehicle. The satellite was headed for an orbit between the altitudes of 710-770 miles.

It was designed to map irregularities in the earth's gravitational field and to survey the electron content of the ionosphere.

The satellite is the first satellite of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration to have geodesy — the measurement of the earth's size, shape, mass and variations in gravity — as its primary mission.

Severe Quake Felt In Seattle

SEATTLE (AP) — A major earthquake hit the Pacific Northwest at 8:29 a.m. (PDT) today, causing widespread damage and one or more deaths.

The first confirmed fatality was in Seattle, where Adolphus Lewis, age undetermined, was struck by debris.

There were unconfirmed reports of two or three others killed in Seattle.

There were scores of injuries, many in Seattle from falling debris as some brick facing on older buildings toppled into the street.

The quake, rated at an intensity of more than 7 on the Richter scale, was felt from Coos Bay, on the Oregon coast, to southern British Columbia and east as far as Idaho.

The earthquake belt was at least 600 miles long, from north to south, and 400 miles wide. Alaska points reported it was not felt there.

The tremor did structural damage in half a dozen cities and knocked out some hydroelectric circuits at the giant Grand Coulee Dam in northeast Washington.

British Teacher Linked To Spies

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet police have arrested a young British teacher named Gerald Brooke and filed a charge of an undisclosed nature against him, a British Embassy spokesman said today.

The London Daily Mail said Brooke was held on espionage charges, but the embassy said it "has not been told the precise nature of the charge."

The spokesman said the Russians have not answered two embassy requests for permission to see Brooke.

He was arrested Monday when Soviet police broke into a Russian apartment. His wife was present and notified the embassy.

Battle Watched By U-M Band

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — For four nights Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic swung to the sounds of the University of Michigan Jazz Band. The fifth night it rocked to the sounds of bombs and machine guns.

The 18-member band, on a State Department tour of Latin America, had front-row seats Sunday when another band — a group of rebels — toppled the government in the Dominican Republic.

Band Director Bruce Fisher said the musicians cancelled their scheduled Sunday night concert in the capital city and, after hastily retrieving most of their instruments, watched the revolution from a hotel roof top.

"We could see all the strafing and bombings," Fisher said, "particularly the planes bombing and strafing the Presidential Palace. We could see the roof of the palace and the bombs exploding around it."

The band was told by American Embassy officials to be ready for a hasty departure the next morning. They were evacuated by a U.S. Navy ship to San Juan.

State Capitol Gets Wash Job

LANSING (AP) — This is cleanup and spruceup week at the State Capitol, while Gov. George Romney and the legislature are out of town.

The venerable old Capitol building itself is a contrast, and could be compared to an aging lady undergoing a face lift.

One side is newly fresh and clean. The other is grimy and peckmarked with the scars of age.

The William Burger Co. of Chicago started last week to finish the job of cleaning the outside building stone. The Chicago firm was low among four bidders for the project at $59,400.

Extensive experiments showed that sandblasting would wear away the sandstone exterior. The cleaning is being done by

Escanaba First Port Open For Upper Lakes

Down Detroit way the public—and even the news wire services—seems to keep the impression that the Sault Ste. Marie locks are the focus of navigation opening on the upper Great Lakes.

This locks Escanaba, whose port historically initiates the spring iron ore shipping season a week or two before there is shipping at Sault Ste. Marie, but the navigation bouquets downstate are always kept in the refrigerator until the Sault Locks are open.

Today the U. S. Department of Commerce confirmed Escanaba's premier position in Upper Lakes navigation opening with its last ice report for 1965. First Michigan port open this year was Alpena on March 15, with Detroit opening the next day.

On the Upper Lakes Escanaba was first on April 6, after the Straits of Mackinac had been opened by the Coast Guard icebreaker Mackinaw on March 29.

Other significant dates in navigation opening: Cleveland April 8, St. Lawrence Seaway April 8.

Green Bay April 13, Sault Ste. Marie April 14, Marquette April 17, Duluth April 18, Buffalo April 18. The April ice report stated: Lake Superior: Considerable ice in Keweenaw Bay; drift ice rotten near Munising and Whitefish Bay areas but shipping moving with little assistance.

Fishing 'Poor' Census Shows

Clifford Long, fish biologist with the Michigan Department of Conservation, today confirmed what fishermen assumed all winter — that it was a "rather poor" year for ice fishing for perch on Little Bay de Noc.

According to figures compiled by the department during its creel census, about 22,250 perch were taken in about 29,322 man-hours of fishing.

The catch averaged out to less than one perch per hour for fishermen.

The winter creel census on Little Bay de Noc began in January and ended April 12.

Heaviest fishing was in January when 15,899 perch were taken in 16,780 hours of fishing, Long said.

February was the poorest month when only 5,633 perch were caught in about 8,000 hours of fishing — an average of only .7 fish per hour.

The March-April period was best with fishermen landing 5,716 perch in only 4,542 hours of fishing — an average of 1.2 perch per hour.

Long said the department plans to resume its creel census May 1. He said it would continue at least through May 20 with random interviews with fishermen at the Gladstone Yacht Club, Nelson's in Masonville, Garth Point and at the public fishing site in Rapid River.

Long said indications are that perch fishing will improve during that period because of spring spawning runs.

Description Of Property Needed For Burn Permit

Persons who phone in to the Conservation Department district headquarters, ST 6-2351, or to conservation officers, should give the legal description of the property in applying for a burning permit.

Charles Bomaster, district fire supervisor, said that the furnishing of the legal description will facilitate permit issuance.

The description should include the forty, and town and range. This information is available from tax receipts.

Thorin Tells Rotarians . . .

Esky's Airport Aids Industrial Growth Of Area

Escanaba Airport has more private business flying than scheduled airline traffic, Airport Manager Jon Thorin told the Escanaba Rotary Club at its luncheon meeting Tuesday noon in the House of Ludington.

Thorin, introduced by Program Chairman Raymond Fish, showed a movie on the importance of flying to city development. It was prepared by the Federal Aviation Authority and had as its theme that airports are "The Best Investment We Ever Made."

The movie reported that in 1954 a third of U. S. factories were in rural areas. By 1962 more than a half of them were on rural sites and 9 of 10 new factories are being located in small communities. As one result of this trend business flying has almost doubled and today the major air traffic in the United States is business traffic done in company-owned airplanes. There are over 40,000 business planes in the nation with more than 500 being added yearly.

Thorin explained that the Escanaba-Gladstone area uses the Escanaba airport to serve this growing business. He noted that last October there were 102 transient (business) planes on the port and 91 airliners, in November 105 and 82, and in December 46 and 86. The December airliners coming and going, handled 956 passengers.

Industrial Aviation

Ninety per cent of aviation is general (private) aviation, said Thorin and 20 per cent of the population of the United States flies compared with 2 per cent for the world. He said that major local industries like Harnischfeger Corp., Mead Corp. and Eaton Manufacturing rely on airplanes for much of their executive travel.

Harnischfeger is a heavy user of charter flights between its Milwaukee works and Escanaba plants. Mead Corp. has a fleet of planes and has a new French jet on order. "There's not a corporation jet that can't get into the Escanaba airport with its 5,000-foot runway," said Thorin.

The Escanaba airport is a "wonderful" airport, said Thorin with unusually fine weather characteristics. Last December it had only 8 scheduled flights cancelled. It had 7,181 pounds of air cargo going out in December from Escanaba area manufacturers and needed instrument landings for only 16 of its airliner flights.

Govt. Usage

Thorin's office supplied Uniform reports on airport conditions in answer to 44 plane radio calls during the month. Four military planes also used the port during the month. Escanaba's status as the Upper Peninsula "capital" of the Michigan state government requires air services. The Conservation Department, Aeronautics Department, State Police, Michigan National Guard and other departments of state government all have planes and other departments make much use of airlines.

Jon Thorin Aviation operates a fleet of three planes at the airport in charter service. Executive flying and air ambulance are the most frequent calls for its services and Thorin said that air ambulance service had declined. "Our medical and hospital services must be taking care of more local needs," he said.

Thorin said that the airport is excellent but that its building facilities are poor.

Illness Fatal To Mrs. Gaufin

Mrs. Marie Johnson Gaufin, 76, life-long resident of Escanaba, died at 6:15 p. m. Wednesday at St. Francis Hospital where she had been a patient eight days.

Pedestrian Fair Game In Saigon

By HAL BOYLE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — In war-torn South Viet Nam, you may take your life in your hands if you venture far outside Saigon.

But if you do much walking inside Saigon, you take your life in your feet.

There is no such thing as an innocent bystander here. Particularly if he is a pedestrian he is fair game for all and the only time he isn't in danger of being run down is during the curfew hours between 2 and 4 a.m. If he is abroad then he is only in danger of being shot by the police.

Can't Fight Traffic
It is said that one reason the besieging Viet Cong haven't taken Saigon is that after reaching the outskirts of the city they decided it would be hopeless to try to fight their way through the traffic.

Saigon traffic is famous throughout the Far East. It starts early in the morning and, except for a three-hour siesta break, continues until it gets too dark to see a pedestrian.

If you strike one and are found at fault you must pay his hospital or funeral costs. Rules of the road prohibit a motorist from pursuing the pedestrian across sidewalks or into public buildings.

"Actually you rarely see a pedestrian or bicyclist badly injured," remarked a motorist who has won an unsafe driver's badge with three oak leaf clusters. "The main idea is merely to brush him out of the way with your bumper."

The traffic here is picturesque as well as impossible. The streets are a rolling museum of the history of wheeled vehicles. Your status depends on whether you own your vehicle, what kind of wheels it has and how much it cost.

Cabbies Wildest
At the bottom of the social totem pole is the cyclo driver who wears a conical hat and operates a pedal taxi resembling a bike pushing a wheel chair.

From this social basement your prestige goes up to the motorcycleist to the cab owner to the man who owns his car or even better is driven by a government chauffeur.

The cabbies of Paris are regarded as Europe's wildest steersmen. But in Saigon, every boydrives as if he were a jockey whipping his mount home in a $100,000 handicap race.

Motorcycle owners pride themselves on the number of people they can get on their vehicles. I saw one man and his wife barreling along holding three children as they discussed the world situation in Chinese.

Mead Outlook Held Favorable

DAYTON, O.—Howard E. Whitaker, chairman of the board of Mead Corp., said his company's earnings per share had increased for the third consecutive year in 1964 and "The present outlook for 1965 indicates that this favorable trend will continue for a fourth year."

Whitaker, speaking at Mead's annual meeting, said the large paper and paper products firm is "currently operating at substantially full capacity in all divisions."

He noted general improvement in market prices for a number of Mead's lines, most of which took place late in the first quarter of this year and should be more fully reflected in second quarter results. Mead's net earnings amounted to $.79 per common share in the first quarter of 1965, compared to $.75 per share last year.

Net earnings for Mead in 1964 were $17,883,136, or $3.03 per common share. In 1963, the company earned $15,219,211, equal to $2.62 per common share. Mead sales reached an all-time high of $509,515,659 in '64, up from the 1963 record of $474,089,462.

The following Mead directors were re-elected: Stanley C. Allyn, Sydney Ferguson, Clarence Francis, Arthur L. Harris, Alfred W. Jones, W. Walker Lewis, Jr., Al H. Mahrt, John J. McDonough, J. W. McSwiney.

H. T. Mead, Nelson S. Mead, Paul F. Miller, Jr., George H. Pringle, George H. Sheets, Alan H. Temple, John M. Walker, H. E. Whitaker.

Elected

MILWAUKEE — Robert E. Dineen, vice president of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. since 1950, was elected Wednesday to succeed Donald C. Slichter as president. He will be the 12th president of the 108 year old Milwaukee-based firm. Dineen came to Northwestern Mutual from a career as New York State superintendent of insurance from 1943 to 1950.

Joseph F. Richer, Rte. 2, Bark River, was ticketed by Delta County Sheriff's office for making an improper right turn Wednesday after a collision with a car driven by James E. Knuth, Brookfield, Wis. Officers said both drivers were going east on U. S. 2 and 41 in Bark River when Richer turned in front of Knuth from the left hand lane. Knuth was in the right lane.

Forces Landed To Help Flight Of Americans who have been evacuated so far are tourists, transients and dependents of U.S. officials.

Dominican armored forces crossed the bridge into the capital. From another direction 1,000 Dominican army troops were fighting through the city from block to block.

Johnson ordered the Marines ashore during a 5-6 p.m. meeting at his White House office Wednesday with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

Leaders Called In

Johnson was told that 300 more Americans had assembled on the Polo Grounds asking for evacuation. Also, the local police chief, identified as Des Perdal, and the noninsurgents' second provisional government had said they could not guarantee the safety of the Americans or of the American Embassy, which had been machine-gunned.

The President hurriedly called in congressional leaders of both parties to tell them of his decision. Some of the Republicans had been at a dinner honoring Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois. Dirksen was among those at the White House session. He said the legislators supported Johnson in whatever action is necessary to protect U.S. citizens.

Going on the air, Johnson announced to the American people his decision to send in the Marines.

Past periods of frequent U.S. intervention are still fresh in the minds of many Latin Americans. U.S. Marines occupied Santo Domingo in 1916-24. They were in Nicaragua in 1927-33.

France Sends Ship

This time Washington is stressing hands-off the domestic political situation in Santo Domingo, saying its sole aim is to protect the lives of Americans and other foreign nationals. The French have sent a nonmilitary ship to evacuate their citizens and others have asked for U.S. help.

The 400 Marines were reported to have gone from the Boxer to the Polo Grounds, a convenient wayside point between Santo Domingo and Halina, by helicopter. They consisted of two rifle companies and a helicopter squadron.

Govt. Accuses Livestock Firm

Leonard Linsmeier and Charles F. Linsmeier, in partnership in Linsmeier Livestock Auction, a market agency, and Linsmeier Livestock, a dealer firm, both at Menominee, have been charged with violating the Packers and Stockyards Act, the U. S. Department of Agriculture announced today.

The complaint was issued by the Packers and Stockyards Division of USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service. The partners will have an opportunity for a hearing on the charges. After the hearing a USDA judicial officer will determine whether the evidence substantiates the allegations.

The complaint alleges that the partners' financial condition does not meet the requirements of the P&S Act, and that they engaged in unfair and deceptive practices in selling livestock on a commission basis.

Specifically, it alleges that: 1. The partners' current liabilities exceeded their current assets by approximately $31,455 on Jan. 31, and that they operated during January while their current liabilities exceeded their current assets.

2. During December 1964 and January 1965, the partners misused funds received from the sale of livestock consigned to their market agency for public sale, resulting in a shortage of sales proceeds due shippers of approximately $25,115 on Dec. 31, and $10,950 on Jan. 31.

3. From November 1964 through January 1965, the partners issued approximately $9,148 in "insufficient funds" checks to consignors in payment for livestock sold by the partners for these consignors.

The Packers and Stockyards Act is a federal statute which regulates those engaged in interstate livestock and poultry marketing and meat packing.

The popular hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross," was composed in 1913 by Salvation Army Captain George Bennard.

Sandberg Tells Industry Role In Recreation

By KENNETH S. LOWE

Large corporations and the part their land can play in providing outdoor recreation was pointed out at a meeting of the Wisconsin-Michigan Section of the Society of American Foresters Saturday on the campus at Northern Michigan University, Marquette.

Speaking on behalf of the corporate landowners, Lynn Sandberg, forester of the Celotex Corp. told of the increasing involvement of industry in the field of outdoor recreation. Many persons living in Upper Michigan where the population density is light, don't realize the great expansion of industrial areas and population pressures throughout Lower Michigan and Mid-West metropolitan complexes, Sandberg said.

"We in the U. P. often don't appreciate the forest around us," he pointed out space here will soon be at a premium as greater numbers of people look to Upper Michigan for outdoor recreation.

Sandberg cited these developments which are helping to create an ever greater demand on natural recreation resources.

- Shorter work weeks.
- Longer vacations.
- More money available for leisure pleasures.
- Earlier retirement.
- Greater mobility.

Own 30 Per Cent Of U. P.

Thirty per cent of the Peninsula is owned by large corporate landowners, Sandberg noted. This comes to about three million acres of forest land or acreage which would have some recreational value.

Holdings of 5,000 acres or less account for another three million of the total, and the remaining 40 per cent is in government ownership.

"Whatever develops in the recreation picture in Upper Michigan—industrial landowners will figure prominently," Sandberg said.

"Corporations here feel their land must soon be put to use other than for sole industrial purposes. The tax load in the Peninsula has increased 60 per cent in the last eight years, and we must find new sources of income for the land we hold."

Sandberg said that corporate landowners realized that only 16 per cent of Michigan's Lake Superior shoreline was in public ownership, and that there was a need for the establishment of the proposed national recreation area here (Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore).

He questioned, however, the necessity of taking large amounts of forest land out of production. "Industry here feels that timber lands can be put to multiple use—logging and recreation," he said.

Cities Change In Use

In the past, land used to grow timber also provided hunting, camping and fishing—low intensity recreation uses.

"We are now becoming aware of new and more concentrated land development for recreation as well as timber harvesting," Sandberg revealed. "There has been a hesitancy on the part of corporations to step up use of their lands by the public—simply to avoid frequent legal suits resulting from injury, drownings, etc."

It is becoming a practice for large industrial landowners to cooperate in wildlife management on their holdings with state and federal agencies—"This also has great recreational value," Sandberg said.

"Wilderness means different things to different people," he pointed out.

He said that large timber land owners in the Peninsula are trying to maintain the natural beauty of their acreage while making maximum use of the land.

Extensive cottage development on Petticoat Lake in Baraga County by the Celotex Corp. was cited as an example of recreational uses of industrial land.

He pointed out that the vast majority of corporate holdings in Upper Michigan were open with practically no restrictions to hunting and fishing.

"There have been instances of land development strictly for the profit motive, and not always in the public interest," Sandberg admitted, "but these are becoming fewer as land management is seen in a new perspective."

"We will try to add to the general welfare of people in Marquette County and the other counties of the Peninsula," he said. "There will be mistakes made along the way, but we are keenly aware of the need of public outdoor recreation, and we are confident that the overall plan evolved by industry will be fitting and proper."

Regarding The Strike

Down in Detroit, where strikes once seemed to be as commonplace as automobiles, the local economy put the rubber band on its wallet when the workers hit the bricks. There aren't as many strikes as there used to be. There is more sophistication on the side of both management and labor now and less inclination to go to the mat on economic issues. The public pressures on both sides are nearly all to settle. When the pressures work, wages go up and the prices of automobiles increase.

The automobile industry has become such a huge part of the national economy and Detroit such a big center of it that the process has created a lot of special conditions. It has been a big factor in the creation of big unionism. The United Auto Workers, for instance, represent the work force at Harnischfeger Corp.'s Escanaba plants. (The United Steelworkers represent its main works workers at Milwaukee.) Unable to agree on a new wage contract to succeed the one that expired April 15, Local 632 UAW ended work on Wednesday.

Eventually the two sides will get together and renew their negotiations and finally settle on a new contract and return to work. Meanwhile there's the difficult period of bargaining. It is difficult for the community as well as for Harnischfeger Corp. and Local 632 of the UAW. It is particularly difficult for a small city like Escanaba, as compared with a huge one like Detroit, because here every difficulty is at elbow proximity and involves the whole community.

The new strike is a point in our maturing industrially. There is more public understanding, we'd like to think, than in the last strike 8 years ago, of the problems of both sides. The company doesn't make automobiles and it doesn't make its truck cranes or welders in Detroit, or even Milwaukee. The union is mindful of this and has for years accepted less than the going Detroit wage, but it is obviously influenced by the progress of labor in Detroit and anxious to share as many benefits of industrial gain as possible.

The point at which the company's view of what it can afford to pay and what the union will take is the focus of bargaining. It is the point on which the two sides haven't been able to meet yet.

The public is in a very poor position to judge the merits of either side's position, and this can be said of the mass media in communications, too. Because of the deeply unsettling effect of a major strike, we are anxious to assure the public that the issue is moving toward agreement, but this we cannot do yet.

The strike is specially unfortunate in a period of Harnischfeger plant improvement and a period of prospective growth and expansion, but the union regards its position so seriously that it will strike and suffer and the company its position so seriously that it will take a strike and losses. So the matter goes to a test of attrition of sorts and this is never desirable because it settles issues by injury.

America's genius for industrial and social adjustment has supplied no substitute yet for the strike. It comes when the irresistible force strikes the immovable object. It is immensely wasteful. Alternatives may be even worse. Forced arbitration tends to favor labor because of humanitarian appeal, but labor's real welfare lies in a healthy industry and that means one that is competitive. Some of them have died because they solved their plant problems but not those in the market.

Rail Troubles

The nation's railroad crisis is more than a matter of financial transfusions for companies in trouble. It even goes beyond the much-needed modernizing of equipment and facilities.

What are needed are new conceptions of railroad—ing—or rail-less roading—if this kind of ground travel is to become an attractive alternative to automobiles, buses and airplanes.

Speed is the key factor in intercity travel. The fastest trains in the world today run between Tokyo and Osaka, cruising at around 125 miles an hour. Japanese engineers plan to build a more powerful locomotive which, in the coming decade, will be able to reach the ultimate speed—about 185 m.p.h.

This is the top, because at that speed friction between wheel and rail reaches the vanishing point, and without friction there can be no movement.

But there is no reason to restrict oneself to wheels, and the Japanese are experimenting with a design in which a train would run on an air cushion over concrete tracks.

Propulsion would be provided by a revolutionary application of the principle of the electric motor—changing it from rotary to linear motion. Speeds of 500 or 600 miles an hour are theoretically possible.

Other ideas that have been suggested in the past are jet-powered trains and trains shot through vacuum tubes. Then there is the perennial monorail, which has yet to graduate from the short-run, showcase stage.

President Johnson has called for a 200-mile-an-hour rail link between Boston and Washington. If the Japanese engineers are right, this won't be accomplished with conventional locomotives.

Building such a line, in whatever form it might eventually take, would be an expensive undertaking. But it might be less expensive in the long run than taxpayer subsidizing of our present relics of a 19th-century transportation.

It might also save our children from having to pave over completely this heavily traveled part of the country.

Moonshine

An estimated 44 million gallons of moonshine were produced in illegal stills in the southeastern "moonshine belt" in 1963, reports the Licensed Beverage Industry. Most of it found its way north, in a variety of ways.

Although there is illegal liquor activity in 41 states and the District of Columbia, 90 per cent of moonshine production is in 12 states. It is believed that at least 200,000 persons are involved in the production, transportation, distribution and retailing of the often filthy and lead-laden stuff — to the tune of $600 million a year in unpaid taxes.

Federal, state and local officers destroyed 18,460 illicit stills during 1963. This is slightly less than in previous years, but there may be as many as four undiscovered stills for every one eliminated.

Price Of 'Peace'

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — A vague outline is taking shape of the treaty Ho Chi Minh hopes to get in South Viet Nam.

From hints Hanoi officials and some prisoners let drop, it seems Ho will seek:

Recent resignations of South Vietnamese from Ho's government may be designed to have these men available as nominees for Saigon posts. North Vietnamese now hold offices in Laos after having taken Lao names and Lao birth certificates made in Hanoi.

●—Local (Red) self-government for some South Viet Nam areas. (These would become bases the Viet Cong could use to prepare for future break-outs.)

●—Incorporation of some VC troops in the South Viet Nam army. They would patrol the Red-dominated communities.

If agreed to, that would mean only U. S. troops would leave. The North Vietnamese don't admit they are in the south. North Vietnamese troops are still in Laos, years after the treaty that required them to leave.

Ho's Southern Expeditionary Force of North Vietnamese troops would get revised birth certificates and remain as "native" southerners. A few might return north in a token show of co-operation and then sneak back along the Ho Chi Minh trail.

Ho's terrorists could enforce 100 per cent "ayes" in the north and in VC-controlled South Viet Nam areas. His underground could frighten a sizeable number of antiunification people from the polls in Saigon-controlled territory.

If precedent is any guide, Ho would insist either on no inspection or a three-country inspection team to enforce the treaty—with one Communist member and one weak or pro-Red neutral. The Communist on the team could be counted on to veto or slow down action by the team and make it impossible to bar a heavy flow of weapons from Hanoi to the VC.

Experience in Laos, and in South Viet Nam after the treaty which divided the country, shows that protests against such inspection teams and even protests by inspection team members are wasted effort.

Under such a treaty, Hanoi and the VC could carry on as in the past, but with greater freedom. Red infiltration of South Vietnamese hamlets would be facilitated. The flow of Red materials, VC terrorism and VC political expansion would continue. So would radio orders from Hanoi.

Supposing these Red ideas are rejected?

By treaty, how does one stop Hanoi from sending instructions to its South Viet Nam underground?

How does one get rid of guerrilla fighters with forged identity cards?

How does one eradicate the assassination — enforced Red shadow rule in a hamlet?

How does one keep arms from coming south by sea and down the Ho Chi Minh trails?

Tornado Alerts Save Many Lives

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Dr. Robert M. White, chief of the U.S. Weather Bureau in Washington, commended midwestern bureaus Wednesday for their work in alerting residents to an outbreak of tornadoes April 11.

"Post tornado surveys indicate that weather bureau forecasts and warnings...for Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio were very accurate and contributed materially to the saving of lives," said Dr. White in an intraservice teletype message.

Second-ranking Bethlehem Steel Corp. enjoyed its best period since the fourth quarter of 1961. It earned $44,132,000, or 97 cents a share, against $28,505,000, or 56 cents a share, a year earlier.

Republic Steel Corp., No. 3 producer, had profits totaling $23,276,168, or $1.48 a share, compared with $15,772,262, or $1 a share, in the 1964 first quarter. Sales increased to $373,317,433 from $288,421,898.

Lightning is beautiful at a distance. The trouble is, you can't always keep it far away. So, if you are outdoors during a thunderstorm, seek shelter in a building. Avoid taking shelter under a beach umbrella or a lone tree but, if there is a grove of trees, take shelter under one of the shorter ones because lightning always strikes the highest point available. If you are in open country the highest point may be you. Your best chance would be to lie flat, preferably in a ditch.

Shun wire fences. Such fences are especially dangerous if they touch a tall tree. If the tree is hit the electricity may travel along the wire for a great distance.

A golfer's metal clubs are an added hazard and should be dropped and picked up after the storm. Fishing is hazardous because a pole and line, regardless of the material they are made of, conduct electricity.

If you are in a boat head for shore. If you are in a rowboat, lie down on the bottom. If you own a motorboat or sailboat be sure it is "grounded" by having a metal pathway leading from the tallest point to a point about 2 feet below the water line. You should get below deck.

It is not safe to swim during a storm. Indoors it is best not to handle any electrical appliances or metal faucets during a storm. This means you should make no phone calls until the storm is over. If you have an outside antenna for your TV, make sure it is grounded. Fireplaces should be avoided because the chimney is a favorite target and the soot is a good conductor.

Anything so beautiful as lightning can't be all bad. Lightning is the chief means by which the nitrogen in the air is combined with oxygen. This nitric oxide is then washed into the soil to form nitrates which are necessary for the growth of crops.

Letters To Ann Landers Tell Boy About His Sick Father

Contributions are welcome. They cannot be over 300 words and must be signed with name, address and phone number of writer and names will be used. The right to condense letters is reserved.

Mr. John R. Goudreau
Vice President
First National Bank
St. Ignace

I was disappointed to read, in last Saturday's Daily Press, of your hasty condemnation of Rep. Einar Erlandsen. You will recall that in my recent letter to you I expressed sympathy for your "Operation United Michigan" and asked for some "Make Big Mac Free" petitions, four of which I personally circulated. Perhaps in my letter to you I should have mentioned that it was Representative Erlandsen's concern which motivated me to take a greater interest in the Mackinac tolls.

Now I do not know which method of abolishing or reducing the tolls is best, but I do know that we must keep an open mind regarding proposed solutions and should not bitterly attack those who would pursue the project in a different manner. We should remember that this is a Michigan problem not an Upper Peninsula problem. Of the two hundred signers of my petitions I found great sympathy, but the matter can only be settled by compromise and as you so aptly stated in your letter to me "the major part of our support must come from people...in the lower part of the state." Representative Erlandsen has for several years worked to marshal support in the Upper Peninsula and "in the lower part of the state" because he knows we need many legislative votes to resolve the toll matter.

As an Escanaban, represented by Einar Erlandsen, and as a citizen of Michigan, I must express my doubts at the sincerity of any individual or movement which attacks a representative who has for over 12 years, worked with former Senator Prentiss M. Brown, first to build the bridge and since its construction, to eliminate the tolls. I would strongly suggest that you convey your ideas regarding the Mackinac tolls to your own Rep., Mr. Clayton Morrison of Pickford.

Sincerely yours,
John W. Buckbee
Escanaba and Lansing

Quarter Profits High For Steel

NEW YORK (AP)—The Big Three steelmakers earned the highest profits in several years in the first quarter of 1965.

Steel producers operated at capacity during the period to meet heavy demand for current use and for stockpiling in the event of a May 1 strike.

The strike deadline was extended four months this week.

U.S. Steel Corp., No. 1 steelmaker, earned $73,772,849, or $1.25 a share, in the first quarter, up 43 per cent from $51,546,002, or 84 cents a share, a year earlier. This was the highest since income of $80.9 million in the second quarter of 1960. Sales rose 29 per cent to $1,150,375,259 from $888,994,392.

Second-ranking Bethlehem Steel Corp. enjoyed its best period since the fourth quarter of 1961. It earned $44,132,000, or 97 cents a share, against $28,505,000, or 56 cents a share, a year earlier.

Republic Steel Corp., No. 3 producer, had profits totaling $23,276,168, or $1.48 a share, compared with $15,772,262, or $1 a share, in the 1964 first quarter. Sales increased to $373,317,433 from $288,421,898.

More than 83 thousand new and rebuilt freight cars were placed in service on American railroads in 1964, more than double the 1962 total.

Dear Ann Landers: What should a mother tell her 11-year-old son when the boy's father is mentally ill? I've always felt it is needless to burden a child with adult problems. They learn soon enough that life can be cruel.

About two years ago my husband lost his business. He went into a depression and would not speak to anyone. He began to drink heavily and it became difficult to distinguish between the alcoholism and the sick mind.

Two weeks ago I signed papers which committed him to an institution. I told our son daddy was taking a vacation. I am exhausted keeping up the pretense but I don't know how else to handle it. Am I doing right by the boy? —ANXIOUS MOTHER

Dear Mother: No. Please tell your son that daddy is no longer on vacation — that he is ill and had to go to the hospital. Your son must sense that you are anxious and trying to hide something. This will make him anxious, too. And if you don't let him know there is always a chance that he will learn from outside the home that his father is mentally ill and in the hospital. This would shake his confidence in you and add to your problems.

Children often understand a great deal more than their parents give them credit for. And they adjust better to an unhappy truth than to a candy-coated lie.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a mother of four children who must work because my husband has asthma and can't hold a job.

The widow next door calls my husband almost every day to help her out. He has fixed her plumbing, painted her kitchen, put new fixtures in her bathroom and helped her carry barrels from the basement to the attic. Every year he takes off her storm windows and puts up her screens.

When I ask him to go to the store for me he starts to wheeze up a storm and tells me he is a sick man.

If I would be ungovernable I would like you to say so in the paper. —THE NAG (His name for me)

Dear Chump (My name for you): Any man who is well enough to do all the things you listed should be able to hold down a part-time job. I recommend it.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a woman 70 years old. When my husband died I felt very much alone. It seemed like a good idea to ask my married daughter, her husband and three children to move into my home. They have lived here free from time to time (once for 5 years) so this was nothing new to them.

I pay the taxes, half of the utilities, buy my own clothes, pay my own doctor bills, do all the cooking, most of the ironing and I take care of my small grandson while my daughter works with her husband.

Last week I told my daughter I was making out a will and that I wanted everything I own to be divided between her and her brother. She said, "I think you are being unfair. You should leave this house to me."

Actually my daughter and her husband have been able to save a lot of money by living here. They have a free roof, cook and built-in nursemaid for their child. They buy only groceries and pay for half the utilities. I want to treat my son and daughter equally. If you feel I am wrong please say so. —AN HONEST OPINION WANTED

Dear A. H. O. W.: I know of few sentences more grasping and ugly than the ones your daughter uttered. If you want your son and daughter to share equally in your estate, by all means write your will that way.

"The Bride's Guide" ANN LANDERS' booklet, gives authoritative and complete information on how to plan a wedding. To receive your copy of this comprehensive guide, write to Ann Landers, in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 35c in coin.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

RHUBARB DREAM DESSERT

Crust: Blend together 1 cup sifted flour
5 tbsp. confectioner's sugar
1/2 cup butter or margarine
Press mixture into an ungreased 7 1/2 x 11 x 1 1/2 inch pan and bake in a 350° oven 15 minutes.

Topping: Mix together 2 beaten eggs
1 1/2 cups sugar
1/4 cup flour
3/4 tsp. salt
2 cups finely chopped rhubarb
Spoon onto crust and bake 35 minutes at 350°. Serve warm with whipped or plain cream. Serves 6.

Super Tip — Wash rhubarb stalks carefully. Lay several stalks together on cutting board and cut through all of them at once. If stalks are quite broad, you will want to slice them lengthwise in several strips first.

This rhubarb dessert is so "yummy" that you'll be proud to serve it when you ask the girls to come for dessert and coffee.
Your family will enjoy
it, too.

Romney Greet Belgian People

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — "We have come to Europe to learn how we can play an even more dynamic part in Europe's progress and our own," Michigan's Gov. George Romney said today.

In remarks prepared for a meeting of the American chamber of Commerce and Belgo-American Association, Romney asserted, "cooperatively, we can insure the greatest level of economic and political security even known by our own people."

"But more importantly," he added, "we can help the underdeveloped countries grow and flourish in an atmosphere of freedom rather than tyranny."

Romney is with a group of Michigan businessmen and legislative leaders on a 10-day tour to drum up Michigan-European trade.

In his sales pitch here he said "if we do not set aside our relatively minor differences and advance to this task of serving as a united model to the rest of the world, we may well find ourselves in common alliance for survival instead of progress."

The Michigan governor discussed the American federal system "because it may be a guideline for decisions to be reached on this continent."

He referred to decisions on economic and political unity among the European Common Market countries.

"Our system is far from perfect," Romney said. "A threat to its existence a century ago was excessive state sovereignty, today it is excessive national sovereignty. Centralism is threatening to swallow up state and local government."

Romney said "with the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway, Michigan is more than ever before involved in direct international commerce."

He added that in 1963, Michigan exported $1.36 billion worth of goods and imported more than a billion dollars worth.

The governor noted that Michigan's Lower Peninsula, "in which 90 per cent of our population is concentrated, is in the shape of a hand, fingers together, thumb extended, ready for a handshake."

Profits Top All Records At GM

By CHARLES C. CAIN
Associated Press Staffer

DETROIT (AP)—General Motors wrote a fabulous page in American business history Wednesday when it reported the biggest profit ever made in a first quarter by any firm.

The $636 million profit topped the GM and U.S. industry's old first quarter high of $536 million set last year. It also marked a new high for any quarter, surpassing the old mark of $602 million GM earned in the second quarter of 1964.

A record breaking number of GM workers shared in the company's tremendous first three months and they earned more than GM workers ever got before in any quarter.

GM worldwide employment averaged 737,963 workers for the first quarter and they were paid $1.3 billion. These totals were far ahead of the previous highs, set in the second quarter last year, of 690,802 workers and $1.2 billion in payrolls.

General Motors report outshone the record first quarter marks reported earlier by the other two members of the automotive Big Three—Ford and Chrysler.

Ford earned $200.8 million in its first quarter and Chrysler $56.6.

American Motors, the nation's fourth largest automaker, is due to make its first quarter report early next week. Its automotive sales have run behind 1964 thus far and its report is not expected to be as bright.

Practically every item in GM's first quarter report marked a new record.

Barbra's Hour Seems Too Long

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Television audiences had an hour-long introduction Wednesday night to the current singing sensation, Barbra Streisand, at 23 the star of a Broadway hit.

CBS' "My Name is Barbra" was a flashy and imaginative demonstration of her talents, literally a one-woman show in which she sang, by actual count, 25 songs, engaged in an outrageous spoof of the high fashion business and even tried a comedy monologue.

We met many different Streisands in moods ranging from serious to silly.

She has an exciting voice, a highly individual style, interesting looks and a glossy sophistication of style that may be a little hard to take by music conservatives who prefer "Lover Come Back to Me" sung as Sigmund Romberg wrote it.

The sleek production of the program was reminiscent of that which surrounded Judy Garland in her earlier specials. But in spite of everything, the hour seemed a little long.

ABC's "King Family" hour will continue through the summer with new programs, only to be chopped in half when the fall season starts in September.

There was a vast outpouring of sympathy notes recently when the senior member of the clan, William King Driggs, died at 79.

Driggs, a veteran vaudevillian, was the father of the six sisters and two brothers who are the parents of all the youthful Kings.

CBS will pre-empt "Great Adventure" Friday night for a memorial program, "An Hour with Ed Murrow." Eric Sevareid and Charles Collingwood, former colleagues of the newscaster who died of cancer on Tuesday, will narrate the program. It will consist primarily of excerpts from his radio and television broadcasts.

Recommended tonight: "Worlds Fair Spectacular," ABC, 10-11 (Eastern Daylight Time) — Gordon and Sheila MacRae in the last of their special musical variety shows, this one a tour of New York's big show.

Lions Club Names Officers

POWERS-SPALDING — The Lions Club met at the Big R Cafe Monday evening. A new slate of officers was chosen by the board of directors. The new King Lion is Robert Smith, Robert Charland is first vice president; Melvin Fazer, second vice president; Harlan Hansen, secretary, and Elmer Pipkorn is new tail twister. Members on the board of directors are Lloyd Fazer, Karl Behrend, Stanford Strand and David Draz. The club will sponsor a Little League ball team this summer.

Visiting at the Earl Kell home this week are Mrs. Wilbur Grosse, daughter Julie and son David, and Mrs. Theda Richards and son Marc and daughter Kathy of Lawton, Okla., and Miss Dorothy Sharp of Harbor City, Calif. They are sisters of Mrs. Kell whom she hasn't seen in 16 years.

The Handy Helpers 4-H club leader, Mrs. Earl Kell, and chaperones, Mrs. Edward Wiecech and Mrs. Mildred Detzen attended the 4-H achievement day Saturday, at Stephenson.

Theodore Dault is a patient at Anderson Memorial Hospital in Norway. His room is 101.

William Shakespeare Jr., of Michigan in 1897 invented the level-wind fishing reel. His device, which made casting practical, assured the even winding of the line on the spool.

PAST PRESIDENTS of St. Francis Hospital Auxiliary, which marked its tenth anniversary yesterday at a Spring Gala at the House of Ludington, are pictured here with the present head of the organization. They are, from the left: front row, Mrs. Lawrence M. Fleming, Mrs. Donald Ness, Mrs. William J. Smith, who served a previous term and is incumbent president and Mrs. Carl Benzinger; back row, Mrs. Forrest Henslee, Mrs. H. H. Shepeck and Mrs. Nicholas Chapekis, first president of the Auxiliary. Jaycettes Hold Dinner Meeting At The Dells

The Jaycettes held their regular monthly dinner meeting at the Dells Supper Club Tuesday evening.

Donald Moreau of the Jaycettes spoke to the members on the Queen Pageant, to be held May 15 at William Bonifas Auditorium, and asked assistance of the Auxiliary. Members of the Jaycettes and other Jaycee wives interested in helping are asked to call ST6-6190.

The closing meeting for the season will be held May 25. Regular sessions will be resumed in September.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Taylor returned to Bridgeton, Mo., after attending the observance of the golden wedding anniversary of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Hurley.

Auxiliary Spring Gala Event Of The Season

A record attendance marked St. Francis Hospital Auxiliary's Surprise Spring Gala - 10th anniversary dessert bridge, held Wednesday afternoon at the House of Ludington.

The tables, centered with hand-made mementos and tallies, representative of past benefits, and the vari-hued spring ensembles of the guests, made a fascinating picture in the attractive surroundings of the Emerald Room, and adjacent lounges.

Desserts, for which the House of Ludington is noted, in a wide variety, were arranged on an attractive buffet table. The centerpiece was a tree made of tin, symbol of the 10th anniversary.

The Past Presidents' table was centered with a tin rooster, bearing a placard reading, "Ten Years to Crow About." The decor of the table occupied by members of the Board of Directors, was a gilded tin pineapple holding a colorful candle.

Welcome To Guests

Mrs. William J. Smith, retiring president, welcomed the guests and paid tribute to Mesdames George C. Bartley, Ralph Sogard and Michael B. Jensen, who, with Sister M. Borromea, laid the foundation of the Auxiliary. A letter of regret that she was unable to attend, was received from Sister Borromea.

Mrs. John Haines, wife of the assistant administrator of the hospital, and Father Joseph Paulantonio, hospital chaplain, represented the institution.

Even in a serious organization such as the Hospital Auxiliary, there is time for humor. Excitement ran high when announcement was made that judges were voting to select the most beautiful Easter bonnet. The "most beautiful Easter bonnet" was the unrevealed gag feature of the afternoon. A hat, made by Mrs. William J. Smith and Mrs. H. J. Huckenpahler, was worn nonchalantly by Mrs. Kirk Harrington, without concern for the stir it caused and the side glances, chuckles and laughs wherever she went. The hat was ridiculously loaded with fruit, vegetables, butterflies, flowers, birds, bees, signs and tallies, a composite of the various events sponsored by the Auxiliary for ten years. The award was an equally outlandish plaque, made by Mrs. Charles J. Byrns.

Hostess Group

Guest prizes, round tins, wrapped in foil and decorated with a foil rose, containing tiny assorted tin cookie and canape cutters were awarded to Mrs. Earl Brown, Mrs. Charles Hammar and Mrs. Frank Kaim.

The individual table centerpieces, of original design, handmade, were the prizes in cards.

Officers and members of the Board of Directors were hostesses at the benefit, funds from which will be used, as is customary, to provide another gift to the hospital for the added benefit and comfort of its patients.

Pastor Returns From Conference

The Rev. J. Bruce Brown of First Methodist Church has returned from Kalamazoo where he attended the Tuesday meeting of the Detroit Conference Board of Hospitals and Homes, held at Bronson Methodist Hospital. The meeting was a joint session with the Michigan Conference Board. The two boards have supervision of four homes for the aged, one hospital and a children's village.

Day Of Prayer At St. Patrick's

St. Patrick Guild is sponsoring its annual Day of Prayer for World Peace Saturday, May 1 from 1 to 5 p.m. Schedule for the Circles and their leaders is: 1 to 2 - St. Genevieve and St. Clare; 2 to 3, St. Ann, St. Helen and St. Cecilia; 3 to 4, St. Monica and St. Elizabeth; 4 to 5, St. Rose and St. Martha. All members of the parish are asked to participate and the public is welcome to attend.

HEALTHY SKIN

Diet and exercise play a major part in controlling teenage skin problems. Get plenty of sleep, be active in sports or take long walks, clean your face thoroughly daily and avoid fried foods, chocolates, nuts and carbonated drinks. If your face or neck breaks out, wash gently with a cleanser recommended by a doctor.

Forum On Gas Repeats Queries

Escanaba City Council presented the third of a series of open forums on proposed sale of the city's gas utility to Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. at the Webster School Wednesday night and drew an audience of 21 persons.

The question will be voted June 1, with a 60 per cent "Yes" vote required to accept Mich Con's offer of $725,000 for the city's gas utility.

Mich Con will build a pipeline to Escanaba to bring natural gas to the city. It is a cheaper fuel than the propane gas the city now sells and Black & Veatch, consulting engineers hired by the city to study the situation urged the city to sell its gas plant if it can get $600,000 or more for it.

Members of City Council, W. R. Chaney of Black & Veatch, City Controller Frank Bourke, and Thomas Horton, U. P. manager of Mich Con, answered questions.

Last forum will be at 8 tonight at Escanaba Junior High School.

Most questions covered material already presented. One suggested that part of the evening be devoted to the advantages of city ownership of the utility. Chaney replied that there are no advantages if the city can sell the utility for $600,000 and since it can sell it for $725,000 the reasons for retention are further diminished.

Questions Answered
Q. To Mich Con. What is company policy on averaging fuel bills on beyond the heating season?

A. That's company policy at customer request. It'll bill for averages over 12 months.

Q. Can converting cost of home heating be financed through the company?

A. The company doesn't compete with heating contractors in the conversion of furnaces.

Q. It costs me $213 to heat my home with oil. Will you give me a written guarantee that my heating cost will be no more than $123 if I convert to natural gas?

A. The gas company, like all other fuel dealers, will give no written guarantee that its annual bill will not exceed a stated sum. It will give a home owner a written guarantee that for his heating dollar it will guarantee him 50 many units of heat.

A. To Chaney: Your report states the plant appears to be well maintained. Why did you reverse this position Monday night?

A. Chaney: I did not reverse my position. I stated that the system would have to be both extensively expanded and refurbished to handle anticipated volume of natural gas which would greatly exceed the present volumes of propane.

Experience Elsewhere
Q. How cooperative will Mich Con be with the city if the vote goes against it?

A. Nowhere in Michigan does Mich Con wholesale gas to a wholesale distributor, so this would be a new area for the company. Within limits the company would offer technical assistance perhaps on a reimbursement basis.

Q. What is experience of other Michigan towns that sold their gas systems?

A. Escanaba is the lone municipal gas utility in Michigan and those that sold are satisfied.

A. Would a factory in Gladstone get a better rate than the city of Escanaba could offer to a factory in Escanaba?

A. Yes. Any factory outside Escanaba served by Mich Con would be offered their published industrial rate, which is cheaper than the wholesale rate which Escanaba would have to pay.

Q. What is demand factor, part of the price the city has to pay for gas?

A. Demand factor makes up a large part of the total cost of gas. It's a fixed annual cost. If you buy less than the contract amount you have to pay for it.

Ishpeming Electors Vote School Tax

ISHPEMING—Only 233 ballots were cast, but a proposal to levy a five-mill tax for school operating was approved by better than a 3-1 margin Monday. The vote was 176 to 56 in favor of the proposal.

The Ishpeming Board of Education had asked renewal of a four-mill tax, plus an additional mill to make up revenues lost through cuts in mine valuations.

Mead Ad Contest Draws Nearly 1,000 Entries

DAYTON, O. — Ever hear of a company with 18,000 advertising copy writers?

Mead Corp. one of the nation's major producers of paper and paper products decided it has potentially that many, so it recently invited all of its employees (except the Advertising Department) to try their hands.

The "Write Your Own Mead Ad Contest" produced 956 entries, written and illustrated by pulpwood handlers, paper machine operators, shipping container salesmen, executives, secretaries, and many others.

No promise was made that any of the ads would ever see print. "But who knows?" We may have come up with a whole hatful of ideas for effective advertisements," said Clifford Schaible, Mead director of advertising.

First prize, two World's Fair trips and $100, went to James Smith, a salesman at Dixon Paper Co., which is a Mead-owned paper and paper products distributor based in Denver.

Other winners were a salesman in the Mead Packaging office in New York City, William O'Donnell ($100); a chemical engineer at the Mead mill in Kingsport, Tenn.; Donald Johnson ($50); a technical representative in Mead's Industrial Papers Division in South Lee, Mass.; Herbert Wheeler ($50); and an industrial engineer at the Chillicothe Paper Co. Division paper mill in Chillicothe, Ohio, Roy Martins ($50).

Swedish Teacher Rotary's Guest

Robert Mosenfelder has informed Escanaba Rotarians that their foreign guest this summer will be Mats Oskarsson, a school teacher of Fargelanda, Sweden.

He is 25, single, has traveled widely in Europe and likes skiing, skating, swimming, football, and folk dancing as hobbies. His university studies included English, Scandinavian languages, psychology and education.

Oskarsson will arrive in Escanaba July 9 and leave Aug. 29, as a guest of Rotary's ambassador program.

The son of a metal worker, he spent three months at the University of Durham, Newcastle, England in 1962 and spent holidays in England in 1959.

Asked why he wished to be an experimental ambassador in Rotary's program which has brought so many young foreigners to America to learn its ways, Oskarsson wrote:

"I am deeply interested in other people's life and way of thinking and I have considerable experience in speaking English. I also feel qualified because of the practice I get in the special kind of school I am teaching (folkhogskola), a voluntary school for people over 18 who want to become politicians, nurses, policemen and so on.

"Many of the lessons are in the form of discussions. Therefore I get into contact with national and international problems and it is my firm conviction that I could contribute to the understanding between nations and gain valuable knowledge for my own country by a visit to the United States."

Universities In U.P. Given Okay On Construction

State Senator Joseph S. Mack (D-Ironwood), vice chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee and ranking member of the joint committee on Capital Outlay, announced today approval of $1,682,000 in self-liquidating projects for Michigan Tech and Northern Michigan universities.

The combined projects, including the capital outlay appropriations, Mack said, approved by the Senate Outlay Committee should exceed $20 million for the Upper Peninsula universities.

Among the projects approved, were a three-fold boost to $1,640,000 for the women's residence complex at Michigan Tech. The plans for 120 students have been raised to 300 and food service has been included.

Another significant building plan, Mack noted, is $1,125,000 for additions to the physical education building at Northern Michigan; also, $6 million for the previously planned four-unit residence complex at Northern; and $125,000 for development of a ski facility at the Mont Ripley area of Tech.

During the coronation of Queen Elizabeth in 1953, workmen had to shore up a 60-foot-long parapet in Westminster Abbey to make sure it would not topple on the peers and peeresses.

FLY THIS FLAG SET ON YOUR HOME... OFFERED AT COST, AS A PUBLIC SERVICE

THE FLAG SHOULD FLY ON THESE NATIONAL HOLIDAYS

January 1st — New Year's Day
February 12th — Lincoln's Birthday
February 22nd — Washington's Birthday
April 13th — Jefferson Day
May 1st — Law Day USA
May 1st — Loyalty Day
May, 3rd Saturday — Armed Forces Day
May 30th — Memorial Day

June 14th — Flag Day
July 4th — Independence Day
August 14th — V-J Day
September, 1st Monday — Labor Day
November, 4th Thursday — Thanksgiving Day
November 11th — Veterans' Day
December 7th — Pearl Harbor Day
December 25th — Christmas Day

We believe every home in town should fly the flag on national holidays. We also believe more homes would fly the flag if more people knew where to get one. Failure to fly the flag, it has been found, is not due to any lack of patriotism on the part of Americans who love Old Glory as much today as Americans did when the Spirit of '76 was first born. Because of this we make this fine flag set available as a public service at our cost. The set is top quality through and through. It meets every standard the government sets for a flag of this type. In addition, the stripes are double stitched, a hallmark of flag quality usually found only at higher prices. We include with the big 3 x 5-foot flag... all the equipment necessary for rigging according to the rules of flag etiquette. These flags are available to all... with no other requirement than that you pay our basic cost... and fly one on your home on holidays. We also include, for the convenience of those who cannot come in for flag sets, an order form which will bring a set to you by parcel post, if you wish. Fly the flag on important national holidays. In come... and especially on the Birthday of American Independence July 4th. The stars and stripes on your home show the world that the Spirit of '76 is as warm in American hearts today as it was at its birth on the first 4th of July... nearly 200 years gone by.

THIS FLAG SET IS OFFERED AT COST AS A NOT-FOR-PROFIT SERVICE.

Consumer Costs Go Up In Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — Higher prices for fresh vegetables and medical services caused consumer costs to rise one tenth of one per cent in March, the Labor Department said.

Costs also were slightly higher for rent, furniture, clothing and recreation during the month.

The government's index of consumer prices — the cost of living index — in March was 109 per cent of the 1957-59 average. That meant it cost $10.90 last month to buy goods and services which cost $10 during the base period.

The 109 index compared with a 108.9 figure for February. It was 1.2 per cent above the figure for March 1964.

Camp Timber Trail Director Is Engaged

Miss Lucille Ellis of Memphis, Tenn., has been engaged as director for Girl Scout Timber Trail, Inc., and has planned a new and varied program for both six and 12-day camps. Special emphasis is being placed on activities that will appeal to older, more experienced campers attending the 12-day sessions.

Miss Ellis, a graduate of Texas Women's University, has had 21 years experience in girls' camps in Mississippi, Arkansas, Ohio, New Jersey, Tennessee and Michigan. She has directed camps in Manistee and Great Neck, New York.

A native of Memphis, Miss Ellis has taught school for the past 15 years and is presently teaching at St. Louis school in Memphis.

Mrs. Earl Williamson reminds all girls who are planning to attend camp that the registration fee is due by May 1, and can be mailed or brought to her at 540 Washington Ave.

Book Memorial Is Presented

As a memorial to the late Emil LeBrasseur of Nahma, brother of Earl LeBrasseur, Mrs. Tom Wilson and Mrs. Mayme Bashore of Manistee, the new publication "How To Shoot" by Larry Koller has been presented to the Manistee School and Public Library.

The book consists of a complete guide to the use of sporting firearms, rifles, shotguns and handguns on the range and in the field with special photography by Everett Short. Mr. LeBrasseur was known as an expert hunter and trapper.

May Is Named Clean-up Month

Mayor Merwin A. White has asked city residents to cooperate in a clean-up, fix-up campaign during the month of May.

Last year, he notes, the City Council considered an ordinance to combat blighting influences in the city.

Had it been passed, it would have required removal of junked cars, car bodies, and those stripped for parts. It would also have required disposal of used lumber, bricks, blocks or other building materials not suitable for use, and tearing away of old sheds, garages and outbuildings in disrepair. Cutting of weeds or long grass on vacant lots would have been mandatory.

Members of the Council believe, now as then, that before such an ordinance is passed, the people should have opportunity to voluntarily clean-up. A clean, well-kept city, is an attraction for visitors, as well as a source of pride and satisfaction to residents, he observes.

The entire month of May has been designated by Mayor White as clean-up, paint-up, fix-up month.

Warshawsky's have agreed to pick up old car bodies at no cost to residents and to pay for those which still have engines. The city does not want the bodies at the dump.

"This is a good time to get rid of old garages or outbuildings you have been wanting to tear down. If you have useful building materials, they should be piled in an inconspicuous place. Let's make this a real spring house cleaning in May."

"If you have any fix-up projects in mind for this spring and are undecided as to whether or not it may alter your assessed valuation, do not hesitate to call the city assessor, Pat La Fave, for information," he states.

A pilot landing an airplane on the deck of an aircraft carrier goes to full throttle at the moment of touchdown, so he will have sufficient power to fly off again in case of a "bolter" — his tail hook missing all cables.

Burn Permits Are Needed

The Conservation Department reminds area persons that burning permits are needed for all open fires.

The permits are necessary to burn grass or brush. Those burning are responsible for damage and any added fire suppression costs, it cautions.

The department Saturday was called on five fires of incendiary origin on the Merwin Road in Manistee Township. Two acres of jackpine burned.

The fire station also was called last week when shingles blew from the burning Dolph Anderson barn into a swamp, burning 1½ acres.

Mickey Moses

Moses Is Best Hitter On Iowa Baseball Club

IOWA CITY — His name may be Moses and he may be the University of Iowa's leading batter with a .342 average for 11 games — excluding pitchers — but it will take more than his batting to enable the Hawkeyes (0-1) to evade the Big Ten cellar when they take on Minnesota's defending NCAA champions at home in a vital three-game series this weekend.

Fortunately for the baseball team, James (Mickey) Moses, the No. 2 quarterback behind Gary Snook on the pass-happy Iowa football team, has decided to pass up spring grid drills to concentrate on his "fun" sport especially since the Iowa diamondmen list only Moses and pitchers Bob Schaubenberg and Jim McAndrew with averages above .300.

Before this spring the name Moses was usually linked to the Religion Department or the answer to the question of "Who is Iowa's other quarterback?" But thanks to some hefty hitting in Arizona, Mickey is now recognized as the clean-up hit-

Wolverines Win Fifth Straight

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan's Dick Schryer hit a two-run homer in the first inning, got a single and a double later and scored three times as the Wolverines won 11-0 over Eastern Michigan in non-conference baseball Wednesday.

It was the fifth straight victory at home for Michigan.

Joe Kerr, a sophomore southpaw, pitched the first six innings for U-M, yielding Eastern's only hit, a double to left by Lonnie Head in the second inning. Bill Wahl relieved Kerr in the seventh and retired the last nine Huron batters in order.

Lumpe Is Goat, Hero As Tigers Notch Win

Detroit (AP)—Detroit second baseman Jerry Lumpe, a goat in the fifth inning, turned hero with one swish of his bat Wednesday night—and no one was happier than Lumpe himself.

"I really wanted that one," Lumpe said after his triple sent home two runs to tie the score. He scored seconds later when Norm Cash singled to give the Tigers a 5-4 victory over the Los Angeles Angels.

Lumpe's error on an easy double play ball in the fifth kept the Angels alive and Jose Cardenal later hit a three-run homer to shove them into a 3-2 lead.

Joe Adcock homered in the next frame to give the Angels a two-run bulge.

"I thought I'd have to backhand the ball on that grounder," Lumpe explained. "Then, at the last minute I saw I could field it with my glove in a normal position. As I turned my wrist, the ball skipped away."

The two RBIs gave Lumpe six for the season, three of which have knotted the score.

The Tigers had a number of heroes in the game including Dick McAuliffe who continued his heavy hitting with a home run and a single.

Don Demeter went hitless but speared Paul Schall's liner in right center in the sixth inning and threw to McAuliffe who relayed the ball to Cash for a double play.

Larry Sherry hurled the final two innings, picked up his third save of the season and preserved Mickey Lolich's second win.

"Sherry looks as good as he did in the 1959 World Series" umpire Bill Hurley said later. "I haven't seen a better curve ball this year."

Lolich admitted things didn't look too bright when he left the mound but felt he had his best control of the season.

"It was a funny thing, though," Lolich explained. "I was nipping the corners and getting the ball where I wanted it most of the time."

"But every time I made a mistake, Bang! they got a hit."

Catcher Bill Freehan, who had a single and a double for his first hits since returning to action, came to the defense of his batterymate.

"Cardenal hit a perfect pitch, right on the outside corner," he said.

Manager Bob Swift added that no one could tell him the ball was not live. "Not when a 150-pound player can blast a pitch like that off the facing of the second deck in the wrong field."

The Tigers took a 2-0 lead in the third inning on a pair of walks and Al Kaline's single. They chased L. A. starter Dean Chance with their uprising in the seventh.

With two away, Chance walked pinch-hitter Jim Northrup. George Brunet came in after Chance gave up a single to McAuliffe and Lumpe greeted him with his triple past Lou Clinton. Cash's single made Brunet the loser.

Clinton did not figure Lumpe to pull the ball against a left-handed pitcher and was playing him in right-center. He had a long run to reach the ball but never made it.

The Tigers were off today and will open a four-game weekend series against Boston Friday night.

Injuries Hurt Football
So Mickey arrived at Iowa with a football scholarship and visions of becoming a great quarterback. Somehow his recruiters forgot to tell him that Gary Snook had also decided to attend the university.

Mickey believes that he might have had a chance to keep pace with the Iowa passing wizard if a knee injury hadn't cropped up in spring practice his freshman year and if an infected left elbow hadn't caused him to miss several weeks of practice as a sophomore.

By then Snook had won the starting job and Moses was left to second-guessing and taking over the chores as the Iowa punter. In 1964 he led the team in kicking with a 32.6 yard average for 36 punts.

Mickey recently indicated that he still wants to play quarterback in 1965, but that he wouldn't mind switching to a new position if it would help the team.

May Study Medicine
Besides earning letters in two sports for the Hawkeyes, Moses is a dedicated student spotting a 3.2 average in pre-medicine. As a sophomore he won the scholar-athlete award in football and made the Best freshman grade-point-average of all athletes.

After graduation he hopes to go on to medical school although he indicated that professional baseball is not out of the question, especially since he has had some experiences at playing every position except pitch and second base. At Iowa he has played in the outfield, at shortstop and at first base.

Actually Iowa is quite proud of having a Moses around even if he is only a hard-hitting first baseman and a scholar-athlete.

Maris fell after making an outstanding catch in right field against Kansas City Wednesday in the Yankees' 5-1 victory.

The Upper Peninsula high school track and field season has hardly started, what with a late spring and accompanying cold weather . . . But already the cream of the crop of this year's athletes are flashing mid-season form . . . Escanaba's Bill Sarnowski set a new school record in the shot put with his toss of 50 feet ¾ inch against Marquette in a dual meet this week . . . Dick Berlinski set a new Kingsford field record with a leap of 22 feet 8 inches last week.

Another U.P. athlete off to a fast start in track this spring is Bob VanKirk of Sault Ste. Marie . . . In a dual meet against downstate Alpena, the Blue Devil senior sailed 21 feet 2 inches in the broad jump for a new school record, topping the old mark of 20 feet 3 inches set by George Fornarino in 1956 . . . VanKirk also won the 100 yard dash in 10.8 seconds and the 220 in 23.4 . . . Coach Bob Wallis' Blue Devils won the meet, 77½ to 31½.

Area track and field fans will not see some familiar faces in the regional meet here on May 15 . . . Assignment of schools to the regionals has been changed this year and both Kingsford and Marquette will compete in the same regional, at Marquette . . . That cuts down some of the tougher competition in the Class A-B regional to be held at the Escanaba track . . . Also, for the first time in years, there will be a Class C division in the regional meet here, as well as classes A-B and D.

Escanaba softball players and team managers were reminded today by Bill Rodman, president of the Escanaba Softball Association, of the workbee at Memorial Field Saturday . . . The association has set Sunday, May 16, as the target date for opening the 1965 season . . . Rodman points out that the opening date will be dependent on the response to the calls for workbees, as well as the weather . . . Softball is struggling to make a comeback in the community after some lean years following a popularity peak in the 1950s . . . The game here desperately needs a flock of new young players.

Bill Earle, head football coach at Munising, presented varsity letters to 24 Mustang gridgers at an all-sports banquet recently . . . Named most valuable player on the Munising team was senior Pat Rousseau . . . Dave Feldhusen and Jack Rumohr were elected co-captains for next season . . . Munising wrestlers, competing for the first time this year under Coach Lowell Dennis, were among the athletes honored.

Cleary Takes Rap At Ferency

Escanaba's Tom Cleary, former deputy state treasurer and a long time worker in the Democratic party, today gave Michigan the spectacle of a Democratic leader using a tomahawk on the state's Democratic state chairman, Zolton Ferency.

It came about because Cleary's new Lansing public relations firm is representing a group of dog track promoters.

Last Friday at a legislative conference of Democratic leaders, Ferency attacked dog racing and some of the people supporting it. Cleary, legislative advisor to the Schuler-Hart Group promoting greyhound racing, as a tourist attraction commented:

"This is just another one of Mr. Ferency's many attempts to dictate to the members of the Legislature. One legislator suggested that Mr. Ferency should 'leave the driving to us.'"

"Only last month Chairman Ferency turned over the front page of his party's official newspaper to a former horse racing commissioner. Michigan Democrats were treated to a beautiful expose on the 'extremely successful horse racing program that has built an important industry,' in Michigan."

"Then, of course, the same old tired argument of gambling expansion, sin, and syndicate controls were applied to the subject of dog racing."

"As a self-appointed lobbyist for the horse racing folks, Mr. Ferency should be commended for his excellent representation of their best interests," Cleary continued. "But while Mr. Ferency is maligning some members of the Schuler-Hart group, he should be mindful that this is a very broad representative organization of Michigan business, professional, industrial and political leadership."

"Leading Michigan Democrats in the group include James T. Dunnigan, state chairman of the Michigan Businessmen for President Johnson Committee; John Dodge, former deputy secretary of state; Robert Fenton, former treasurer of the Oakland County Democratic Committee; and Joe Collins, former state Democratic chairman, to name but a few," Cleary concluded.

Win Schuler is a Marshall restaurant operator, and Herbert Hart is a former Detroit police commissioner and businessman.

Hemes, Manning To Retire From School Board

Dr. William Hemes and Jack Manning, members of the Escanaba Area Board of Education whose four-year terms expire this year, announced today that they do not plan to seek reelection.

Both men have been members of the Board of Education since July, 1961.

The only announced candidate for the June 14 election is Roland Collins, 1012 Washington Ave. Collins is seeking election to the remaining three years of the unexpired term he was appointed to fill on an interim basis last year.

Luther M. Barrett, supt. of schools, said that Collins is the only person who has taken out

Smelt 'Blacken' Area Streams

The annual smelt run which each spring causes a type of "midnight madness" among area fishermen is on.

Heavy catches of the silvery fish were reported for the first time Wednesday night on all area streams with the Escanaba River termed the "best in the county" by Conservation officers.

The Days River between Escanaba and Rapid River was reported "black" with fish early this morning as the fish continue to migrate during daylight hours.

Conservation officers said that the runs are likely to continue at peak levels for the next three or four days, but warned that fishermen must have licenses to fish inland waters.

Officers said that streams were patrolled last night and would continue to be watched throughout duration of the smelt run.

Air Search For Drowning Victim Is Unsuccessful

An aerial search of mainland and island shorelines in Little Bay de Noc and Green Bay by Sheriff C. A. (Cully) Johnson Wednesday failed to turn up any sign of the body of an Escanaba commercial fisherman who is presumed to have drowned in January.

Sheriff's officers said another search would be made by air next week.

Missing is Edward Boyle, 56, of 218 N. 10th St. He is believed to have drowned along with Erving Dahm, 46, 1225 Lake Shore Dr., when their car went through the ice in Green Bay about two miles southeast of Portage Point in January.

Dahm's body was found two days after the accident.

Johnson covered about 250 miles in the air search yesterday afternoon without success.

Hearing Society Hears Petersons

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Peterson presented a slide program on Pakistan, Thailand, India, and other Asian countries to the Better Hearing and Speech Society last night at the Chamber of Commerce Building.

Subjects presented ranged from agriculture to architecture, education and politics. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson spent several years in this area of Asia while he was establishing new educational programs.

Repair of several hearing aids to be used in the hearing aid bank was ordered. These are to be loaned or given to persons unable to purchase them. The next meeting of the society will be on May 12, when Nestor A. Wickman, regional audiologist, Hearing Conservation Section, Michigan Department of Health, will speak.

Briefly Told

The Delta-Menominee District Health Dept. will hold an immunization clinic from 2 to 4 p. m. Friday at the Delta County Building.

During the 1962-1963 season, the Montreal Canadiens played a record total of 23 tie games.

Stock Racing Track Planned

A group of Escanaba businessmen today announced plans to construct and operate a stock car racing track this summer between Escanaba and Gladstone.

A spokesman for the group said construction is expected to begin within the next two weeks and that the track would be in "running shape" by the middle of June.

Plans call for weekly races either on Wednesday or Saturday nights.

"We're still dicker over two pieces of land," the spokesman said, "but the site will definitely be along the highway (U. S. 2 and 41) between Escanaba and Gladstone."

Facilities will include a dirt track of either one fifth or one quarter mile with seating capacity for about two thousand fans. If successful with its initial promotion, the group plans to blacktop the track, perhaps next year.

"There are at least 50 and maybe up to 70 cars with drivers who want to run locally every week," the spokesman said. "We'll have drivers from all over the Upper Peninsula and possibly some from Wisconsin."

ment of the results of the union's presidential election — a major factor complicating the steel industry negotiations.

I. W. Abel, now secretary-treasurer, is expected to be the winner, ending McDonald's 12-year reign over the million-member union.

McDonald reportedly plans to challenge the expected result, asking the union's 33-man executive board to overturn it. He also may ask the U. S. Labor Department to investigate and seek a court order for a new election.

McDonald said the 11.5-cent wage raise provides a floor for the union's bargaining aims during the postponement.

But Cooper indicated he did not consider the figure a pattern for future bargaining.

The 11.5 cents an hour will not be paid to steelworkers until a final contract settlement is worked out.

Mute Witness Ruling Issued

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court, in a landmark decision, declared prosecutors and judges in state criminal trials violate the federal constitution if there is comment on an accused person's silence, or a statement by the judge that silence is evidence of guilt.

Justice William O. Douglas, ruling on an appeal by a California Negro who was sentenced to execution, held that comment on a refusal of a defendant to testify is a remnant of an inquisitorial system of criminal justice which the Fifth Amendment outlaws.

"It is a penalty imposed by courts for exercising a constitutional privilege," Douglas declared.

Justice Potter Stewart wrote a dissenting opinion, in which Justice Byron R. White joined. Justice John M. Harlan wrote an opinion concurring with the result, but said he did so with great reluctance. Chief Justice Earl Warren took no part in the case.

The Californian, Eddie Dean Griffin, was sentenced to die in the killing of Essie Mae Hodson in Los Angeles.

Skilled craftsmen have been cleaning the time-stained interior of London's Westminster Abbey with soap and water. The gloomy walls, described in official guide-books as a "dirty, chocolate hue," now glisten anew, revealing the original white stone, marble and bright gold-leaf tracery.

Menominee To Study School Reorganization

The Menominee County Intermediate District Committee for the Reorganization of School Districts, meeting April 22 at Carney, organized study committees as follows:

Community Factors and Transportation Committee: Frank Budmats, Daggett; Roy Hubbard, Cedar River; John Gasper, Menominee; Gerald Theuerkauf, Rte. 1, Menominee; Erich Kedsch, Daggett; Victor Johnson, Carney.

Program, Personnel, and Enrollment Committee: Jerry Poupore, Spalding; Mrs. Margaret LaBombard, Hermansville; Roy Rasner and Warren Schuette, Wallace; Dr. Roger Seidl and Lawrence Fish, Menominee.

Representatives of the Bark River-Harris School District, who were also present at this meeting, were invited to appoint four persons from their district to serve on the study committee.

Under the Reorganization Act of 1964, it is the duty of the 18-member Menominee County Intermediate District Committee to develop a plan for the reorganization of school districts in accordance with the policies and principles adopted by the state committee. These policies require that the proposed plan be based on a comprehensive study of present educational conditions and present and future educational needs.

Tax Petition 80 Feet Long

HOLLAND (AP) — Mrs. William Westrate Jr. of Holland was packing Wednesday for a new trip to Lansing with heavier ammunition in her fight against a state income tax as part of any fiscal reform package.

The largest weapon she bears is a petition 80 feet long with 2,500 signatures who support her views.

Mrs. Westrate, wife of a Holland physician and mother of three children, plans to take the petition next Tuesday to Lansing and present it to State Sen. Harold Volkema, R-Holland.

Three years ago she took a 33-foot petition on the same subject and presented it to former Rep. Reimer VanTil who unrolled it on the House floor.

"I feel, morally, it is wrong to be overtaxed, however, I do not object to paying taxes for maintenance of the state," says Mrs. Westrate.

She believes taxes are a "penalty and encourage people to stand less and less on their own two feet....these are not the Christian principles under which I was taught."

The petitions were circulated in the Holland area on standard size stationery sheets which she and several volunteer aides pasted together into one long roll.
